The business has grown exponentially.

It was established in 2006. Originally as a wholesale supplier of hand crafted chocolates of the highest quality. Since then, a retail factory shop has been added. The business features chocolate-making classes and regularly hosts bus tours.

While the current owner works only part-time in the business, it's set up and staffed to be run under full management. There's already a fully trained manager in place. And the long-term staff, who all share a passion for the business, are keen to remain.

For more than ten years, loyal wholesale and retail customers have supported the business. And new wholesale clients are on the waiting list. This big market will keep for the new owner to expand into and increase income accordingly.

An extensive training and handover program is offered to allow a purchaser to take over. The business has grown exponentially, the owner is looking forward to retiring, and it now needs to be driven by a new owner.

Key Features and Benefits:
