

Office supplier and printing business / Commercial property for sale - Brisbane Southside

One of the most popular businesses today, founded by a local Australian 19 years ago and now offered for sale for the first time. A high-profit, low-cost business with an annual turnover of approximately one million dollars.

The business provides promotional products and office supplies printing, both indoor and outdoor. It boasts a huge, long-term, loyal customer base and stable suppliers for various sign printing and installation services. With a perfect management system, a comfortable office environment, and high-quality equipment, this business is very easy to run. Ideally located close to the highway, it offers easy access for clients.

Known for its success, integrity, and stable goodwill, the owner is also the landlord and is willing to offer great lease terms to new buyers. The younger owner is willing to stay and assist the buyer as needed to ensure a smooth transition.
