

Four Barber shops for sale

These long-standing barber shops were founded by an Australian Hairdressing Judge and have been operating successfully for nearly 30 years. Fully staffed with skilled, long-term barbers, the business runs efficiently with minimal owner involvement. The group generates strong profitability and continues to benefit from prime locations and consistent demand.

This is the first time these reputable barber shops have been offered to the market, as the owner prepares for retirement. Each shop is fitted with premium equipment, uses high-quality grooming products, and provides a refined customer experience.
